Fahrenheit Advisors Adds Business Development Leader in Hampton Roads, Virginia

Fahrenheit Advisors, today announced the addition of Stephen Hoy as Managing Director of Business Development for the Hampton Roads/757 area.

Hoy will focus on developing new relationships and supporting existing clients and partners from Williamsburg to Virginia Beach, Virginia. With a wealth of experience across various industries and organizational sizes, Hoy is set to bring a fresh perspective and unparalleled expertise to Fahrenheit's diverse client base. His extensive background in consulting, HR technology, and sales development makes him an invaluable asset to the Fahrenheit team.

Hoy's previous experience includes working with notable organizations such as Lansing Building Products, Cintas Corporation, Paycor, and Strive, where he played a pivotal role in launching new divisions and tailoring product offerings to meet the unique needs of enterprise clients. Hoy has demonstrated exceptional advisory skills, particularly in the areas of evolving technology and HR solutions. He was instrumental in helping to launch a new division that customized the company's full product list for enterprise clients, ensuring that each client's unique needs were met with tailored solutions. His ability to navigate periods of transition and growth will be particularly beneficial to our clients who are seeking guidance in these areas.

Hoy holds a B.A. in Communications from Christopher Newport University in Newport News, VA, and is an active member of several professional and community organizations, including the Chamber of Commerce, the Society for Human Resources Management (SHRM), 212 Networking, and 757 Network Leaders. His commitment to professional growth and community engagement further enhances his ability to provide clients with informed, unbiased consultation.
