Charlene Moring, Esq. Appointed to the Board of the Better Business Bureau of Greater Hampton Roads

Strengthening Local Businesses Through the BBB

Norfolk, VA — Charlene Moring, Esq., principal owner of Morning Law P.L.L.C., has been appointed as a Board Member of the Better Business Bureau (BBB) of Greater Hampton Roads. In her new role, Moring aims to foster a strong community within the BBB and encourage local businesses to engage with the organization, reinforcing the BBB's mission of promoting trust in the marketplace.

Moring expressed her enthusiasm for the position, stating, "As a businesswoman who strives to do her best, it brings me great joy to serve in this role." Her appointment is a testament to her commitment to ethical business practices and community engagement.

Charlene Moring is a distinguished attorney specializing in representing injured workers in State Workers' Compensation, Longshore Workers' Compensation, and Social Security Disability cases across Virginia and North Carolina. Her firm, Morning Law P.L.L.C., is renowned for its dedication to justice and client advocacy, often taking on cases that other firms might decline.

Beyond her legal practice, Moring is deeply involved in philanthropic efforts aimed at supporting under-resourced communities. Her notable initiatives include the Annual Berkley GiftCard Giveaway and the Annual Holiday Food Truck Luncheon, which show appreciation for the hardworking individuals at Newport News Shipyard.

Moring's dedication to community service and her professional expertise make her an invaluable addition to the BBB Board. Her leadership is expected to enhance the BBB's efforts in promoting ethical business practices and supporting local enterprises.
